About NUDA

NUDA was established to develop the rich Malay heritage, in particular its language, culture and performing arts forms. NUDA organises programs that aim to provide its participants, mainly students, with the opportunities to develop their creativity to express themselves and learn to participate in a group.

NUDA provides quality language and arts programs for students from primary to secondary schools. Each of NUDA's programs is unique. NUDA's strong believes in customizing the programs to cater to the needs of the schools and fusing the language elements with the performance arts are hallmarks of NUDA's programs, making them unique. The programs are carefully designed to enable students to succeed in all areas of development and to promote within each learner a sense of accomplishment, confidence and a positive self-image.

NUDA's workshops and programs for schools are conducted by qualified trainers and facilitators. Led by its Creative Director and Master Facilitator, CG Karmin Abbas, NUDA's trainers and facilitators believe strongly that motivation remains the basis of success for someone who wants to be good in what he or she does, be it the language, arts, sports etc.
